

SECOND ANNUAL MULTIDISCIPLINARY
SYMPOSIUM ON CHILDHOOD TRAUMA

PREVENTING SYSTEM
RE-TRAUMATIZATION

Feel free to forward this information to your colleagues

Second Annual Multidisciplinary Symposium on Childhood Trauma: Preventing System Re-traumatization

Thursday May 17, 2013

8:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Home of the Innocents
Kay and Jim Morrissey Advanced Therapy Center
1100 East Market Street
Louisville, KY 40206

*You have been chosen to participate in this symposium sponsored by Home of the Innocents, the Administrative Office of the Courts, Jefferson County Family Courts, East End Psychological Associates, and Kent School of Social Work, University of Louisville and Seven Counties Services: Center for Promoting Recovery and Resilience of Traumatized Children and Youth to explore childhood trauma, how to differentiate the effects of childhood trauma from other psychiatric/psychological problems and how different systems can work together to better care for these children.

More information will be sent to you in mid-January 2013

Until then to answer questions please contact Larry Michalczyk, Joan Byer or Anita Barbee michalccl@bellsouth.net, jbyer@kycourts.net, anita.barbee@louisville.edu